

Medical Economics* Selects Jim Hohman to the “150 Best Financial Advisors for Doctors in America” List

Pittsburgh, November 2006 – Allegheny Financial Group is pleased to announce that James D. Hohman, CFP®, has been selected by Medical Economics magazine as one of the “150 Best Financial Advisors for Doctors in America” in their November, 2006 edition. Mr. Hohman is one of only five advisors from Pennsylvania included in this year’s list, and one of only two from Pittsburgh.

Candidates were selected to the list based upon client and peer references, strong recommendations from physicians, and an extensive background check. Applicants were also required to complete an extensive questionnaire listing credentials, educational background, noteworthy professional achievements, specific areas of expertise, and percentage of physician clients.

Allegheny Financial Group is an SEC-registered investment advisory firm established in 1976, which offers clients assistance in every aspect of financial life, including financial planning, portfolio management, market analysis, risk management, and business and estate planning. Successfully bringing together and leveraging expertise in all of these areas, Allegheny Financial Group is one of the most comprehensive providers of integrated financial services in the nation.
